

Trainees trained

Doctors

104,747 trained in 10 years

-- of which GPs

23,907
trained in
10 years

(with potential for more prior to 2016 - legacy systems will not count many completers from then)

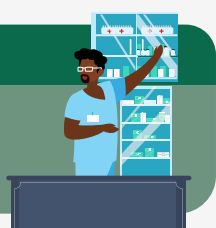

Nurses

124,368
trained in 10 years

Pharmacists

17,658
trained in 10 years

Dentists

4,309
trained in 10 years

Dental Care Practitioners

2,273 trained in
10 years

Allied Health Professionals

164,091
trained in 10 years

2013 - Government launches its mandate to HEE which takes up its formal responsibilities

2014

Published Framework 15 which outlined future healthcare through the lens of the patient

January 2017

Nursing Associate trainee programme began

2019

Topol Review published

2019

Mental Wellbeing Commission Report published

2020

First Blended Learning Programme launched

2020

Published the Core Capabilities Framework for Advanced Clinical Practice (Nurses) Working in General Practice / Primary Care in England

2021

HEE launches Best Place to Work programme

Dec 2014

The first five-year strategy, "Knowledge for Healthcare: a development framework 2015-2020" published

28 June 2015

HEE becomes a Non-departmental public body

2017

Published Facing the Facts, Shaping the Future – a draft health and care Workforce Strategy for England

2019

Topol Digital Fellowships launched

2019

Long-Term Plan published and second five-year plan published

2020

First Population Health Fellowships launched

2020/21

People Plan published

2023

AI and Digital Healthcare Technologies Capability framework published

1 April 2023 – HEE merges with NHS England

Apprentices

114,175 placed since 2016/17

All 350 NHS careers now have apprenticeship routes

Innovative new roles

Nursing associates
10,911 starters 2020-2022

Medical associates
5,228 starters in 10 years

Return to practice

Number starting return to practice training
5,357 starters in 10 years

(with gap in data for 19/20, and non-nursing not known from 19/20 onwards yet)

Blended learning

Number starting blended learning nursing degrees
600 starters 2020-2022

Workforce growth

Growth of additional clinical services staff
73,305 full time equivalent net growth over 10 years

