Interim Foundation Pharmacist Programme (IFPP)

Eligibility and process:

Are you a provisionally registered pharmacist living and working in England?

- No
  - Register with the IFPP

- Yes
  - Are you in employment?
    - Yes
      - Register with the relevant work-based programme (detailed in the IFPP Registration Form)
    - No
      - Undertake a learning needs analysis
      - Meet with your identified educational supervisor / tutor
      - Start documenting your learning in the RPS E-portfolio and work towards the IFPP learning outcomes

A provisionally registered pharmacist living and working outside England
Please refer to NHS Education for Scotland (NES) or Health Education and Improvement Wales (HEIW)

A pre-registration pharmacist (2019/2020) still in in training
Continue with your pre-registration training.
Once you have gained provisional registration you can join the IFPP

A pre-registration pharmacist who has completed their training in 2019 or before, and is working towards passing the GPhC registration assessment
Please register with the IFPP
You can access the new RPS E-portfolio to document your learning. You will also be able to access IFPP online resources and associated online learning events*

Are you a provisionally registered pharmacist living and working in England?

- No
  - You can access the new RPS E-portfolio to document your learning. Register with the RPS.
  - You will also be able to access IFPP online resources and associated online learning events*

- Yes
  - Yes
  - Registration opened on 17th August 2020 and closes 10th January 2021. Those that leave employment or fail the pre-registration assessment can continue to access IFPP online resources and associated online learning events.*
  - However, workplace support will stop
  - A provisionally registered pharmacist living and working outside England
    - Please refer to NHS Education for Scotland (NES) or Health Education and Improvement Wales (HEIW)
  - A pre-registration pharmacist who has completed the programme but has not joined the provisional register
    - Please register with the IFPP
    - You can access the new RPS E-portfolio to document your learning. You will also be able to access IFPP online resources and associated online learning events*
  - A pre-registration pharmacist (2019/2020) who has completed their training in 2019 or before, and is working towards passing the GPhC registration assessment
    - Please register with the IFPP
    - You can access the new RPS E-portfolio to document your learning. You will also be able to access IFPP online resources and associated online learning events*

*Coming soon
Use the Update Form to update your personal details, employer details, supervisor details, region or to withdraw from the programme

Check here for more information on the HEE website