

Meet the International Global Health team

Dr Fleur Kitsell – IGH Programme Lead

Fleur leads the International Global Health (IGH) programme. In addition, she is the Associate Director for Workforce Transformation at Health Education England in Wessex.

Deborah Watts – IGH Programme Manager

Deborah supports the IGH Programme Lead and ensures the smooth running of the programme operationally.

Viki Wadd: IGH UK-based Senior Fellow - Education and Leadership

Viki was appointed to the Senior Fellowship for Education and Leadership in April 2018. She was an IGH Fellow in East London, South Africa from January - July 2017.

Viki has spent her career in the NHS in a number of roles and is currently Associate Director for Organisational Development, Communications and Engagement for East Berkshire CCG. Her passion for working alongside clinicians to implement change, organisational development and addressing inequalities have been a theme through her career. She is delighted to be part of the IGH team and have the opportunity to contribute to a programme that has given her an exceptional personal development experience.

Dr Harriet Shere: UK-based Senior IGH Fellow - Monitoring and Evaluation

Harriet was appointed the UK-based Senior Fellow for Monitoring and Evaluation in April 2018. Her initial IGH Fellowship was in 2013 in Cambodia, where she worked on several projects including developing a campaign strategy for hygiene and sanitation projects. She has an extensive history and love of travel, with previous work in global health, expedition medicine and repatriation.

Harriet now combines this role with two part-time roles as a GP and a medical assistance office doctor in Sussex.

Dr Ann-Marie Streeton: IGH Partnership Link Lead – Cambodia

Ann-Marie has recently been appointed IGH Partnership Link Lead and will be taking over the Cambodia partnership from Dr Ian Kemp.

Prior to this Ann-Marie was appointed in 2016 the UK-based Senior IGH Fellow - Monitoring and Evaluation and completed an IGH placement in Cape Town in 2013 where she ran a project to improve the defaulter rate from Colposcopy at Groote Schuur Hospital. In addition, Ann-Marie has been a Mentor for the IGH program since 2015.

Meet the International Global Health team

Ann-Marie completed the Core Medical Training programme for junior doctors at the Wessex Deanery in 2013 and following this went on to do GP training at the Severn Deanery. She has continued to develop her interest in Global Health Medicine by working closely with the Severn Deanery to develop their current 4 year GP Global Health training programme and setting up the Global Health Taster program which sent a pilot group of 4 fellows to Kwazulu-Natal, South Africa in August 2016. She currently works as a GP in the Bristol area.

Dr Ian Kemp: IGH Partnership Link Lead – Myanmar

Having recently retired from General Practice and hospital medicine in Reading, Ian Kemp is currently the IGH Partnership Link Lead for Cambodia and Myanmar. He joined the IGH programme, initially as a Mentor, more recently as a member of the Steering Committee.

Ian has worked and travelled abroad in many parts of the world and is a keen supporter of The NHS and a lifelong education. He also works in the Tribunal Courts and is a School Governor.

Dr Juanita Pascual: IGH Partnership Link Lead - Lesotho

Juanita is currently the IGH Partnership Link Lead for the Western Cape, South Africa and a new overseas partnership in Lesotho. She works as a Consultant Physician in General Medicine in the New Forest and is also a Clinical Director for Southern Health NHS Foundation Trust. Juanita has held a number of management positions over the years and is passionate about developing clinical leadership in the NHS

Leanne Saddler: IGH Partnership Link Lead - Eastern Cape, South Africa

Leanne has recently been appointed IGH Partnership Link Lead and takes over the Eastern Cape, South Africa partnership from Dr Mick Nielsen.

Leanne has been involved in the IGH programme since 2014 in a number of roles both in the U.K. and overseas. Leanne also works as a Divisional General Manager at a Teaching Hospital in London. She is passionate about multi-disciplinary collaborative working and developing leadership throughout organisations and across professions.

Dr Mick Nielsen: IGH Partnership Link Lead - Zambia

Mick Nielsen has been involved with the IGH programme from its start, having joined it when he retired as a consultant in intensive care medicine in 2007.

He has contributed to projects in Cambodia, Tanzania, Kenya and Zambia and is currently the IGH Partnership Link Lead for the Eastern Cape in South Africa and a new overseas partnership in Zambia.

Before starting his medical career, he also spent a year teaching with the VSO in Malaysian Borneo.

Dr Sue Rendel: IGH Partnership Link Lead - Western Cape, South Africa

Sue has recently been appointed IGH Partnership Link Lead and will be taking over the Western Cape partnership from Dr Juanita Pascual.

Sue is a retired GP, having worked in the same practice in Berkshire for 27 years. She has been a mentor for the IGH programme for many years, a role which has been both a privilege and a delight.

Since a medical student elective to Northern Nigeria, Sue has had a keen interest in health care overseas and has visited various countries advising on and accrediting family medicine programmes on behalf of the Royal College of General Practitioners.

(Partnership Link Lead roles are voluntary posts).
