

Myth 3

“

Can the whole team support me? Including newly qualified professionals and support workers?

Yes! A whole team approach to returner support helps within busy teams.

You should be working alongside someone from your profession on the HCPC register - this may mean you are working in a team with them but not necessarily working in same room as them.

”