

Myth 7

“

Can I be in a paid employment role or volunteering post as evidence of Return to Practice days?

Yes! Any paid employment or volunteering that you undertake alongside a member of your own profession can be used to count towards your hours on the Return to Practice programme and submitted to the HCPC as evidence for registration.

”