

“

Can I go on a virtual supervised practice placement or use simulation for updating?

Yes! Virtual supervised practice and simulation are accepted means of updating skills and knowledge for returners to practice by The HCPC. If simulated learning takes place in a lab or as a part of study and is certificated then it would be formal study evidence. If simulated learning takes place in a supervised practice place environment it may be included as evidence of supervised practice.

”

Myth 8